

CAITLIN BOTTOMS

Program Officer

Caitlin Bottoms supports AmeriCorps programs in Kentucky as a Program Officer with the Commission. She came to Serve Kentucky after leading the Homeless and Housing Coalition of Kentucky's Homes for All AmeriCorps program. She proudly served as both an AmeriCorps State and AmeriCorps VISTA member with the Housing Development Alliance in Hazard, Kentucky. Prior to her national service, Caitlin worked with the Appalachia Service Project as a Finance and Volunteer Coordinator.

Originally from northern Illinois, Caitlin earned her bachelor's degree from Murray State University with a focus on human services and nonprofit leadership. She is a St. Louis Cardinals enthusiast, an avid fan of 500-piece puzzles, and spends most of her free time being managed by her toddler and two rescue dogs.

