

AUBREY MASON

Contracts and Procurement Specialist

Aubrey Mason is the Contracts and Procurement Specialist for Serve Kentucky. She has worked in various departments for the Commonwealth of Kentucky in the Cabinet for Health and Family Services, as well as the Justice and Public Safety Cabinet. Her professional experience includes federal grant management, government purchasing, contract development and management, financial reporting, audits, budgets, designing and conducting training, and inventory management. She is a member of the Kentucky Public Procurement Association, the National Institute for Government Purchasing, and a former member of the Central Kentucky Chapter of the Association for Government Accountants. Aubrey grew up in Frankfort, Kentucky and attended both the University of Louisville and Kentucky State University. She earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Studio Art from Kentucky State University and continues to enjoy creating art in her free time.

