

CARLA MATAMORO SMALL

Communications Associate Service Fellow

Carla Matamoro-Small is the Communications Associate Service Fellow at Serve Kentucky. She has more than 16 years of experience with social services, and obtained her Masters' in Paralegal from Penn Foster College Pennsylvania. Carla is a former principal, teacher, and business owner in her home Island of Trinidad & Tobago. She served as an AmeriCorps VISTA member at the Lexington Rescue Mission. Carla has also worked as a Legal Domestic Violence Advocate with the Brenda Cowan Coalition for more than four years, covering 11 Kentucky counties. Her previous experience also includes Quality Analyst for Humana and Social Service Worker with Community Action council. In her free time, Carla serves as the Program Director and Minister for Community Outreach with Freedom Generation Church, where she serves and assists single mothers in the community of Lexington and surrounding areas. She is excited to be onboard as a team member to make Kentucky a better and safer environment.